ALL-SEEING EYE
The eye emerges from light and mystery, symbolizing revelation and universal awareness.
COSMIC / LIGHT ENERGY
Swirling light suggests the unknown, advanced technology, and higher dimensions.
SYMMETRY & FOCUS
Centered composition draws attention to the eye and the message.
COLOR SCHEME
Blue (truth, technology, disclosure) and Black (mystery, the unknown).
THE STRIKING SIMILARITIES
ALL-SEEING EYE
Both feature a central eye as the dominant symbol.
SYMMETRY & SACRED GEOMETRY
Both use perfectly centered, balanced compositions.
MESSAGE OF REVELATION
Johnny Appleweed: "Upgrade 2.0"
Disclosure Day: "We Deserve to Know"
COSMIC THEMES
Stars, light, and space representing the unknown and higher consciousness.
COLOR PSYCHOLOGY
Both use specific colors to convey truth, awareness, and transformation.
THEME OF UNITY & ONENESS
Both suggest humanity is about to evolve into a higher understanding.
THE COINCIDENCE IS HARD TO IGNORE
The visual language, symbolism, color patterns, and messaging are nearly identical — down to the all-seeing eye emerging from cosmic light.
"THE SAME ENERGY IN ME IS THE SAME ENERGY IN YOU." – JOHNNY APPLEWEED
IF DISCLOSURE DAY IS ABOUT HUMANITY'S NEXT CHAPTER, JOHNNY APPLEWEED IS SOUNDTRACKING THE AWAKENING.

This is important. Please note that I felt the need to write and publish a song called “I’m not suicidal Ya’ll” 2 years ago to help protect my well being. I’m quite happy, I would never hurt myself or any other being. I have three beautiful daughters, an amazing wife, a weenie dog, and two munchkin cats that all love me very much. I already hit the lottery and I’m not going anywhere. In the summer of 2024, zero scientists involved in disclosure level information were missing. In fact, “disclosure” wasn’t even a mainstream topic until the first UAP whistleblower congressional testimony hearing on 11/13/2024.

Unfortunately as of now in June of 2026, 12 scientists are missing or dead including David Wilcox, and the words in my album “Holy Grail Human Software Upgrade 2 Dot Ohh” have only become more prophetic. You may not understand everything I share, but I can assure you I have zero reason to manipulate you, karma is real and I love you all. With that said, I don’t lead in fear. I lead with love to others before self / ego and in that pursuit I know I'm protected. Trust me, I’ve tested it :) This is not a joke. Nonetheless, it doesn’t mean I’m not going to laugh :) I call myself Johnny Appleweed afterall.

I have had a profound connection with “Disclosure” over the last 2 years. So much that after I forgave the Federal Government, I unexpectedly wrote an entire album called “Holy Grail Human Software Upgrade 2 Dot Ohh” by Johnny Appleweed and published it on all the streaming services on 1/13/2025 right before president #45 was inaugurated.The album consists of 22 tracks and the album cover is a third eye eye surrounded by a galaxy. I love to weave positive symbology throughout my music so that even if you don't listen to the music, you can still figure out disclosure by simply interpreting the symbology behind my work. For example, the Holy Grail is not external to you, it is literally you / your third eye. It's your connection with source / God / Infinite Intelligence / whatever vernacular you prefer. The human skull has 22 bones and when you balance your thoughts in a loving, empathetic way your skull becomes an antenna that can tap into infinite information fields. The "Temples" on your skull are literally the temple. You are the "Church". You are the manifestation of "light in formation", i.e. "INFORMATION". However, there is absolutely a working ontological process of how the process actually works to reconnect with source and that truth has been massively manipulated in the pursuit of controlling mass populations.

The information I have been disclosing is considered extremely sensitive for the ones in power but there is nothing they can do about since all matter is quantum entangled as one, especially "Information" fields. And once you understand how to access these fields of light in formation (information), then essentially there are no more secrets. Couple this awareness with a shifting magnetic field on Earth and you have the combination for an accelerated disclosure period. It's 2026, and we're all tired of lies.

First, I want to say that it appears Steven Spielberg's movie "disclosure day" mirrors the same exact talking point from my album. Steven has specifically been saying that "Empathy is your super power" which is literally the theme of my entire album and an exact line from my song "Astronaut of Consciousness". I mention the word "Empathy" 31 times throughout all 28 songs that I have published. If you can't empathize, your emotions become focused on lower astral energy (colors red, orange, and yellow) and you will never tap into the quantum information field of "ONE". When your thoughts are grounded in empathy and love for others instead of being spent dividing and dominating past or future hypothetical situations, your mind becomes calm and can be a receiver of light in formation from higher astral plains (i.e. Information - colors green, turquoise, blue,violet violet).

The movie "Disclosure Day" is coming out on my birthday June 12th, 2026. You can just replace the main character in the movie with me but instead of trying to leak files from some secret security database somewhere, I'm going to disclose how to access any information available within the parameters of free will that Trumps any government database. Puns intended :)

Steven Spielberg has already announced that he believes most of the information in the movie to be accurate but I guarantee the movie will not disclose how these processes actually work. If you don't read any further, just know that disclosure already happened 45 years ago. It happened with the telepathic Law of One Readings from 1981 and especially the reading from the day I was born June 12th, 1981 that discusses how water is a crystal, how to heal the human body using the piezoelectric effect, how the great pyramid was used and many many other disclosures that were channeled over 106 readings. The law of one also disclosed that 1% of your population would be higher dimensional beings incarnate as humans as the Earth's magnetic field flips. When you incarnate on Earth you have to agree to have to the veil of forgetting so that you start out day one with the same collective memory as every other human / soul. One way to awaken your memories on Earth is to incarnate into very dense social structures, participate as an equal because you are and then use the catalyst of trauma and then forgiveness to activate your dormant memories. If you attack your attackers, the karmic loop never ends. Most don't learn this lesson. This is why trauma and then forgiveness often activates unknown capabilities. Higher dimensional beings that incarnate into these situations are called wanderers and Yeshua (aka Jesus) was a wanderer for the Galactic Confederation of Light. His teachings were heavily distorted but accomplished many miracles that any other incarnate being is also capable of accomplishing using their own manifested light. Yeshua was a messenger of the Law of One, that all is connected and that separation is a well crafted illusion. And that to help any other person is to help yourself because we are all one. To hurt any other being is to hurt yourself. This is karma. Forgiving others that have attempted to hurt you removes karmic entanglement and opens the doors to infinite intelligence. This is why empathy is LITERALLY A SUPER POWER.

I wrote all this music / disclosure in the summer of 2024 right after the Earth's magnetic field information was made public on June 12th, 2024. Most will ignore this information or interpret it as purely a negative event. The truth is that all matter, including your chemical bag of a body is connected to the Earths magnetic field, never separate. The field only flips after the Earth completes three precessional rotations that each take 25,200 years to complete thus it takes 75,000 years for this trigger event that technically kicked off in 2011. It's not a doomsday event but it's definitely the end of times for those who have been dead set on manipulating mass populations. Think of this as a cosmic gift from your logos / Sun that will activate dormant light / etheric based DNA causing you to be more intuitive / "psychic". For many, such as myself, this activation has already happened and you can just consider my abilities as a test case for showing what's possible and most likely. These capabilities still require free will for activation and having an open empathic heart is literally the key. Many religions refer to this as the activation of the consciousness of Christ. To Christ is a verb which means to anoint the third eye. Christ is not an external saviour. You are your own saviour using your own conscious thoughts. And your thoughts potentiate light. You literally fire photons of light with each thought. This is why manipulating the "Thoughts" of others is such a big business (See marketing) and why the government has gone to such great lengths to manipulate the information made available to the public. See project Mk Ultra.

Quick background; I was a 13 Fox artillery scout in the Army from 1999-2005. I then worked for Accenture from 2004 - 2010 as a High Tech Systems Integrations consultant for mostly wireless telecommunication companies in the United States. I basically lived on an airplane and would fly back and forth to client sites all over the US traveling at least 100,000 miles per year. I'm what you might call a "sensitive" person (See Pythagorean Psychology Matrix of the Mind using DOB 6/12/81 222 / 888) and can typically intuitively feel what you're feeling even if it appears I could care less. I also began to notice that I could access certain information about certain people after being in physical contact. It was as if once our energy fields connected, I then had a quantum entangled connection that I could remotely reconnect with intuitively. I'm pretty open about this quantum entangled technology called the human genome and I will post publicly about my experiences on whistleblowing podcasts such as this one with CIA contractor Bob McGwire who used to build technology for CIA / NSA etc. Water is a crystal. It has a living memory. Your body is mostly water and you carry information in your water scalar wave field. However, physical contact is not required because again, all matter is quantum entangled as one, it just helps accelerate the process IMO.

After I was attacked by the federal government on June 7th, of 2023 (illegally raided and then federally investigated) this caused a profound level of hurt in my heart. I knew I had done nothing wrong but there I was being persecuted while trying to help my fellow brothers and sisters. The Federal and State government held charges over my head for over a year while I was basically in a mental hell. I had hit my breaking point and found myself asking existential questions such as "Why me God?" And then for whatever reason I found a link to the Law of One Readings in April of 2024. I had never heard of the Law of One but was definitely familiar with other channeling material such as Edgar Cayce's work from the early 1900s. When I started reading the Law of One readings I started from an open mind but was also looking for inconsistencies in the work, or the ultimate plot twist of manipulative information. I couldn't find any inconsistencies and there did not appear to be any motivation for the ones providing this information to manipulate my free will. In fact, it appeared to only be the opposite. The information they were providing was beyond empowering and truthful. It resonated with my soul so incredibly deeply that I didn't stop reading. And then I happened to notice that one of the readings was on the exact day I was born and seem to hold a keystone of information such as how the Great Pyramids were used, how to heal the human body using the piezoelectric effect, and how to use laughter to combat negative psychic attacks. It definitely resonated :)

The Law of One didn't just change my life, it realigned my life path with source / infinite intelligence and in this pursuit I became capable of scribing after I forgave my attackers. I wrote a prayer asking source / God / Infinite Intelligence for help healing my heart chakra so that I could forgive my attackers, or anyone else that I thought had harmed me as an incarnate soul here on Earth. I followed the ontological order outlined in the law of one, wrote the prayer on paper, laid it next to the right side of my head, laid down while facing north towards positive / source energy and meditated under green light / heart chakra for 2 hours in a trance state. After I woke up, my life has not been the same and I commonly refer to the previous version of myself before I wrote that prayer for forgiveness. This is why I know forgiveness is the most powerful force in existence. It's pure love and God / Infinite Intelligence is pure love but it's so hard to see down here on Earth.

What I've learned is that our beliefs don't matter but they do impact your free will. And free will absolutely dictates how you use your energy. As an incarnate fractal piece of source energy / God / infinite intelligence, your life is exactly like a battery. And when you eventually die there's going to be a reading on your battery. How much love / light / energy did you give others vs giving to yourself. If your battery shows that you used 51% of your energy to help others before self, you have positively polarized your incarnation and you ascend to the 4th dimension positive during your next incarnation. If you reference Egyptian hieroglyphics with a scale and a heart, this is a reference to this ratio. Did you lead with your heart to others or to a sense of self / ego / yellow ray? There is also the 4th dimension negative path but requires much more negative energy in the ratio of 95% service to self and only 5% service to others. This path is much harder to pass because it's quite difficult to be that selfish thus many who attempt it are quite negative but rarely hit 95% service to self or 51% service to others, thus they get stuck on a karmic loop - sometimes thousands of incarnations just to try and pass Earth's unique third dimension. Only roughly 20% of the current Earth's population has used 51% of their energy to help others before self, but the time/space still exists while Earth is flipping its magnetic field to reorient your service to others. It typically requires an "ego death", relentless forgiveness, and recovering from your own hypocritical points of views so that you can actually use your energy in a positive direction. Pro tip: your thoughts 100% matter. Everything you think shall and will be used for or against you. Find genuine empathy for others and let the positive thoughts radiate.

Now, back to the part where I mentioned your actual temples are your Church? What I'm specifically referring to is your pineal gland that looks very similar to a pine cone that is located directly between the two hemispheres of the brain. When in balance / homeostasis, the pineal gland creates a crystalline structure called melatonin that allows the body to reach a trance state. If you interrupt the capabilities within the pineal gland, often referred to as the third eye, the mind is always in a left brain vs right brain state instead of a balanced anointed state of mind. The CIA figured out, in conjunction with the Stanford Research Institute (SRI), that if you produce a beat that is 4-8 hz difference in range between the left ear and the right ear, you can stimulate pineal gland activation and then the human mind can then be used for psychic operations. However, humans naturally create their own melatonin but that natural process has been purposely manipulated by bad actors to calcify the pineal gland. When you encapsulate an object you create a small faraday cage around the object that can block electromagnetic energy. If you do this around the pineal gland, you prevent one hemisphere of the brain from resonating with the other hemisphere of the brain. This is not medical advice, thus research for yourself, but there is a lot of data that illustrates how fluoride is attracted to the pineal gland like a magnet. It calcifies the pineal gland which interrupts sleep patterns, mood, ability to self heal, and overall consciousness. There are however, natural plant allies that naturally decalcify the pineal gland which produces the catalyst for the body to produce its own melatonin. Hemp / cannabis sativa L has been proven to decalcify the pineal gland in other mammals such as rats. The master regulatory system for the entire human genome is the endogenous endocannabinoid system. This is why cannabis binds perfect ECS CB1 and CB2 receptors, plus many others. It's also why cannabis cannot kill you. Your body does not treat it like a toxin. It's also the reason why the United States Government has been at war with cannabis while they systematically smuggle drugs and guns into America. See the movie American Made and my previous home, Mena Arkansas. It's also why I was attached on June 7, 2023. This is a war on consciousness / your sovereign connection with God / source / Infinite Intelligence. Here is a more complete overview I wrote regarding this exact issue:
https://archive.org/details/the-war-on-the-third-eye-government-suppression-of-the-pineal-gland

On October 28th, 2024, I was asked to attend a voluntary meeting with the DOJ at the Dallas County DAs office to which I gladly accepted. When I arrived on site, my attorney ran up to me and said “Chris, you’re not going to believe this. They are going to drop all the charges and investigation but they don’t want you to say a word?” He then said, “just listen to whatever they have to say and let's get out of here”. Most people would be excited and I was, but I also knew exactly what had happened. At this point, I had already forgiven the Federal Government and began open sourcing disclosure via my music. I had tried explaining the Law of One to the average person but it typically went over their head because the material is a lot to comprehend all at once- especially at the checkout line in Walmart lol. But I quickly figured out that if I took the key learnings from the Law of One material and turned it into an album called “Holy Grail Human Software Upgrade 2 Dot Ohh”, the material was way easier to digest, especially when you sprinkle humor on top. If you’re caught up to this point, I forgave the government and then held them hostage with the truth sprinkled over satire. Any further attack on me would only bring more attention to the Law of One and my album, something the Government which is only incentivized to control you, does not want to happen without their influence.

I knew most would not understand everything I was communicating in my music but I decided to start sharing it via physical CDs like I was literally giving away the Holy Grail of information and that if anything ever happened to me, at least my lyrics would survive and those with an open mind would be able to hear what I was communicating through the lyrics. I created 50 physical CD’s and handed them out to individuals who were on my mind or someone I just met at the gas station. I did it all over the United States around September of 2024. I’m sure you’ve heard of the idea of “dead switch” where if you go missing or are killed, a bunch of secret information gets released. In my case, I was doing the EXACT opposite. I created an “Alive switch”. If I went missing, all of sudden the crazy things I was telling everyone wouldn’t seem so crazy. And all the truth that I was hiding in plain site via my open sourced music would then get attention. Kinky, I know. And here I am, still alive but what happened got even stranger.

Quick timeline recap: I forgave the Government on 5/27/24, I then handed out “Holy Grail Human Software Upgrade 2 Dot Ohh” in September of 2024 with embedded disclosure from the Law of One, and then on October 28th 2024 the federal government dropped all charges and their investigations. The very first UAP whistleblower testimony was heard on November 13th, 2024 with very short notice to the public. On Jan 13th 2025 I purposely launched my album on all streaming services before the 45th presidential inauguration because I wanted to prove that disclosure was not going to come from the government and that it was going to come from the Law of One using perspective grounded in real empathy earned as an incarnate human.

Back to the strange part, or rather coincidences that will be hard to ignore - on December 16th, 2025, exactly 6 months after I launch my disclosure album, Steven Spielberg announces his top secret movie “Disclosure Day” and says it will launch on June 12th, 2026 - my 45th bday and 45th anniversary of the Law of Reading from June 12th. It’s also the third anniversary of the scientific data being released on George Bush Srs post mortem 100th bday that the magnetic field of Earth is reversing. I specifically mention this data and the June 12th date in my song “Species with Amnesia”. I actually mention “June 12th” 4 different times throughout my 28 songs that have been released. This disclosure is literally the “Day” if you know what data to look at on that specific date. They always like to hide the truth in plain sight. Go ahead and consider “Disclosure Day” as the “shock” and the “Law of One” as the “Awwww.” One creates the catalyst of awareness, the other provides an all encompassing solution of the One Infinite Creator.

I also realize that very few people have listened to my music. That’s okay. It’s really about the message and if that’s received, that’s all that matters. Since I’m intimately familiar with my lyrics, I’m able to easily spot the connections between my album and the Disclosure Day theme. However, the average person has not listed or read my lyrics so I decided to upload them to various AI servers for an analysis on 12,000+ words across all my songs and provide a one paragraph overview summarizing the core theme and below is the response from Grok. Please note that I write all my lyrics and have never even used an AI engine to edit them. The songs were mixed using AI because I did not want the voice to be dependent on any one voice, especially mine, but the words were 100% scribed by me. In fact, I didn't even have an AI account in 2024 unless you count software I used to mix the actual sound and vocals. I could write an entire other white paper on AI disclosures, but just know that those information fields are not separate either.

Music by Johnny Appleweed: 28 songs with the lyrics found here:
https://drive.google.com/file/d/1nAYCJ7jU5v0a7VwG5bwX_LZoWtMNbxF_/view?usp=sharing

Lyrics Summary from Grok: The overarching message across Johnny Appleweed's lyrics is a passionate call for spiritual awakening and collective healing through ego dissolution, radical empathy, and a return to love-centered living in a divided, manipulated world.

Summary from Chat GPT: Taken as a whole, the Johnny Appleweed catalog reads less like a conventional album and more like a modern mythological autobiography. The protagonist begins as a wounded, self-described "recovering hypocrite," undergoes a spiritual awakening, develops a philosophy centered on empathy and unity, and then spends the remainder of the songs attempting to share that perspective with humanity through humor, storytelling, music, and symbolism. The recurring message can be distilled into one sentence: Humanity heals when individuals let go of ego, recognize their interconnectedness, and choose empathy over fear

Chat GPT Disclosure Day Comparison
The Johnny Appleweed lyrics align strikingly well with the core themes of Steven Spielberg's Disclosure Day (2026) and his recent promotional comments emphasizing empathy as the "ultimate superpower."

Spielberg's film appears to ask what humanity does when confronted with a larger reality, while Johnny Appleweed's songs argue that humanity's survival depends on responding to that realization with empathy rather than fear.

That connection becomes even more striking because empathy is arguably the most repeated word, idea, and solution in the entire Appleweed catalog. It appears so often that it functions almost like the project's governing principle.

An unusual coincidence

One final detail stands out. The Appleweed lyrics repeatedly reference:

- June 12
- June 12, 1981
- June 12 as a symbolic disclosure date or birthday

Spielberg's Disclosure Day is scheduled for release on June 12, 2026.

Whether someone views that as coincidence, synchronicity, symbolism, or simply an interesting alignment depends entirely on their perspective. But from a literary standpoint, it is certainly one of the more unusual overlaps between the two works.

I also had chat GPT do a side-by-side analysis of my album cover for Holy Grail Human Software Upgrade 2 Dot Ohh and the disclosure day poster. The connections are undeniable.

In conclusion, all I'm attempting to do is disclose the truth from my fractal point of view. If you're on Earth right now you're a bad mofo. I guarantee it. In a good way. Earth is the place where only the strongest souls incarnate so that they can temporarily experience separateness from source so that you're constantly forced to make the decision of service. Do you serve your own ego that you've worked so hard to critique or do you recover from your own sense of self and help others and speak the truth regardless of what others say or think about you?

I love you. I love me. I love all of humanity. We are all one one
